BOCA RATON PUBLIC LIBRARY ANNOUNCES PARTNERSHIP WITH RUTH & NORMAN RALES JEWISH FAMILY SERVICES TO OFFER CAREER AND EMPLOYMENT SERVICES

BOCA RATON, FL (October 5, 2021) – The Boca Raton Public Library is pleased to partner with Ruth & Norman Rales Jewish Family Services (JFS) to provide career and employment services for the local community. JFS supports people of all ages and beliefs in Boca Raton and Delray Beach with a comprehensive range of programs. The first classes, which will take place in November 2021, are part of the Library’s ConnectUp/StartUp initiative to support workforce development. They include:

Steps to Success: Marketing Your Personal Brand

Wednesday, November 10, 10:00–11:00am

One-on-One Resume Review

Wednesday, November 17, 11:00am–2:00pm

30-minute time slots reserved in advance

“Our partnership with JFS is an exciting expansion of the career development classes and programs for adults already offered by the Boca Raton Public Library,” stated Sally Clark, M.B.A., Certified Libraries as Launchpads Librarian. “These resources will help everyone get back on their feet as the economy continues to recover from the pandemic. We are planning a series of programs, all at no cost to the community, to help candidates hone their skills and find opportunities to pursue their dreams and reach their goals.”

Reservations are required for both programs through the library’s calendar at bocalibrary.org. Questions may be directed to Sally Clark at slclark@myboca.us or 561-367-7021.

The Boca Raton Public Library provides outstanding library services, resources, and programs that meet the educational, recreational, cultural, and informational needs of the Boca Raton community.
